DROWNED IN FOX LAKE

In Mysterious Way Three Men
Loose Their Lives While
in Boat Sunday

ONE ENTANGLED IN SEINE

Joseph Johnson and Samuel Russell, of Fox Lake, and Peter Munn, of Chicago, Meet Death

Three men, two of them experienced
Fox Lake fishermen, the third a resident of Chicago, were drowned early Sunday morning in Fox Lake. An overturned
boat was the mute evidence of the manner
in which the men had met their death.

Tangled in the sein which hung over
one side of the boat was found the body
of Joseph Johnson, of Fox Lake. He was a powerful swimmer but had been caught
in the meshes of the net when the little craft was capsized. The bodies of Johnson's two companions, Samuel Russell of Fox Lake and Peter Munn of Chicago,
have not as yet been recovered.

Half a mile from the Fox Lake hotel the
boat was discovered Sunday morning.
It was known that the three men had
started out late Saturday night to cast their sein. Searchers soon discovered the body of Johnson. While attempting to pull in the net the fishermen are believed
to have overturned their boat.

Little is known of Munn. He came to Fox Lake Saturday night and registered
at the Fox Lake hotel as Peter Munn of Chicago. He hunted up Johnson and Russell and together the three men left
for their night on the lake.

Munn's name does not appear in the Chicago city directory. The police to whom the accident was reported have been unable to learn anything about the unfortunate man. Johnson was an unmarried man about fifty-five years of age
and had resided in the vicinity nearly fifteen years. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen.

Russell was a contractor and was about thirty-seven years of age. He is a married man with three children and had
resided at Fox Lake for many years.

Developments show that the trio took
the boat which they had from Andrew Hettinger, who reported the loss and set out to find it. He found it and pulling in the net found the body of Johnson also.

The two men with Johnson have also
disappeared and it is therefore supposed that they too were drowned. Diligent
work has progressed in dragging the lake
for the other bodies, the 500 foot sein belonging to John Converse, used for carp
fishing is being used and it is thought
likely that the bodies will be recovered in
a short time.

This triple drowning has proved the
sensation of the day in western Lake County, for, while there have been many single
drownings in the past few years a triple
drowning has not occurred in many years.

GIVES LIFE TO SAVE HORSES

While trying to save a team which he felt stood in the way of a tree he was helping fell, John Grace of Chicago, employed on Cook County Treasurer John R. Tomp-
son's farm at Libertyville, met death Friday afternoon.

Grace with two workmen, had cut a large tree almost in two. He told the others to wait a minute, that he wanted to move the team which he feared, was in the path of the tree.

He took a few steps toward the
team, a sudden gust of wind hid the
tree and it fell, catching Grace and crushing his skull. He died in an hour. He has relatives in Chicago, in a brother working for the Union traction company. The inquest proved the fatality was accidental.

GIRL LEAPS FROM TRAIN

Lake Forest Student Receives Serious Injuries

Leaping from a fast moving train on the Northwestern road at Davis street Evanston, to be with her sweet heart, who she thought had missed the coach, Dorothy Stoddard, eighteen years old, daughter of
wealthy parents, living in Minonk, Ill.,
and a student at Ferry Hall, Lake Forest,
received injuries from which it is believed
she will die, while enroute to Chicago Monday.

Her feet became tangled in her skirts
as she made the jump, and she hit upon her head with great force. She was picked up unconscious by W. B. Marquis, also a student at Lake Forest, with whom she was on her way to Chicago, and was taken to the Evanston hospital.

Physicians at the hospital said that her
skull had probably been fractured and that she had suffered internal injuries. Marquis was nearly crazed with grief
when he picked the girl up. Her parents were notified at once.

Miss Stoddard was going to Chicago on an early train. When the train stopped
in Evanston Marquis left it to get a news paper. The train pulled out while he was waiting for his change from the news
dealer. He ran after it and jumped on the rear platform.

While the train was gaining headway
Miss Stoddard leaped straight out from the top step. Her foot caught on her
skirt and she turned a half somersault.

Marquis dropped off the rear platform
as she fell. A woman in the depot notified
the police and an ambulance was hurried
to the crossing. By the time the officers
arrived Marquis was almost hysterical.
He had dropped the girl on the ground
and was sobbing when two policemen
grabbed him and placed him in the vehicle.
A fast run was made to the hospital.
Marquis told the police of the accident.
The girl has not regained consciousness.

SWIFT RESIDENCE TO RIVAL THE 100 ROOMED ARMOUR

Louis F. Swift, Chicago packer, will erect, south and west of Lake Forest, a mansion of one hundred rooms that will rival that now being constructed by an army of men for J. Ogden Armour.

The two great mansions, the most luxurious dwellings by far in the state of Illinois and the central west, will be neighbors, the Swift place being south and a little west of the Armour place. It is estimated that Swift will spend at least five
million dollars in building the residence,
which will be of marble throughout and
fitted with improvements that will represent the height of pampered luxury.

The news is of great importance as it
guarantees to the building trades and construction business of Lake county at least
four or five years of prosperity.

Hundreds of men will be employed as they are at Armouria.

Mr. Swift, like Mr. Armour, is being commended for spending his money in building and improvement operations instead of in setting on its feet some decayed
family of European aristocrats.

This way the cash returns to the pockets
of the American people, his admirers claim.
The Armour place of one hundred
rooms, all of marble, is rapidly taking shape. There is a small army of men, locomotives, dredges, steam shovels, and
teams at work and it is reliably stated that
the place has cost, with its two artificial
lakes, its half mile concrete bridge, its
fillings in and its levelings, over seven
millions of dollars.

CLOSING OUT OF POPULAR WAUKEGAN FIRM

In this week's issue will be found a page ad, announcing the retirement from
business, in Waukegan, of the well known
firm of Hein-Ornstein & Co.

They announce the closing out of a $75,000 stock and the public will receive
the benefit of the greatest reduction sale
ever offered. It is with much regret that their intentions are received by the public as this enterprising firm were the originators of the low prices in Wauke-
gan, and it was through their efforts that
the business circles of Waukegan underwent a most radical change.

They are closing out their store in Waukegan for the purpose of devoting their
time to their stores at Kenosha, Racine, Appleton and Syracuse.

Colors and Heat.
Some people add to the heat of the
day by the clothes they wear," announced the woman observer. "By
their lack of taste they make it worse
for others as well as themselves. One recent hot day I saw a woman in a black dress and a red hat. The dress
was thin and the hat light, but the
colors on a broiling day proved too
strong for me and I was immediately
driven to a soda fountain for recovery."

RAFFLES ROBS HOUSE

Gets Silverware, Jewelry and Money to the Amount
of Over $300

HIGHLAND PARK SENSATION

While George Millard and Family are Away Burglars Enter Residence and Secure Valuables

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Millard of Highland Park was broken into
by burglars Sunday and the home ransack-
ed while the occupants visited with relatives at Ravenswood. Something like
three hundred dollars worth of jewelry and
silverware was taken by the burglars.

Following the sermon at the Highland Park church Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs.
Millard left for Ravenswood where they visited with relatives and friends until ten
o'clock in the evening.

Upon their return home they found the
front door and the window on the front porch open and tracks leading into the
residence told of what had happened.

A thorough investigation upon the part of Mr. Millard told of one of the most daring
daylight robberies which had every taken place in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard lived at the corner of Sheridan road and St. James street.
They moved into this residence only Saturday morning.

Highland Park police fear that a "Mr.
Raffles" is working in their midst. There is no doubt whatever, states the Highland Park chief of police, but that the deed was committed by some one who knew the
premises and the time of the return of the occupants.

Diamond rings, watches and silverware
of all descriptions are among the list of
stolen articles.

The front door of the residence was without a lock. Prior to the time of the leaving of Mr. and Mrs. Millard a large post was braced up against the door by the head of the house in the hope of keeping
out any intruders who might venture
that way. The door had however been battered in by the robbers.

A valuable revolver which lay on the
table in the bedroom of the residence was
not taken.

A list of the articles stolen was placed
in the hands of Chicago detectives at once.
Pawn shop owners were also notified and given the list. No clues have been found as yet.

AGED SALESMAN FATALLY INJURED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

J. H. Bowley, aged sales agent of Zion
City was killed by a stroke over the heart
received at six o'clock Tuesday evening
in a run away accident.

There are mysterious features to the
death which may never be cleared for although Bowley was injured within a few
paces of his home he died before he could be carried there. The injuries that seem to have caused his death are two crushed
ribs over the heart. Besides this he had a deep gash on his forehead.

Bowley and A. M. McNabb were riding
along Elizabeth street when their horse became frightened and dashed off. Before long he veered and the entire outfit ran in-
to a telegraph pole, both men being dashed onto the ground.

McNabb recovered himself and began to look for Bowley only to find him a crushed heap on the ground. The Bowley
home was but a short distance and Mc-Nabb dragged the unconscious man there
but before he could reach the place or summon medical aid Bowley expired and to
widow and two grown children McNabb
brought the sad burden of a corpse.

Bowley lived at 2509 Elizabeth and was a general sales agent. He had been out of employment for some time and weakness of body and heart may have hastened his end.

The verdict was death in a runaway.
The only wound visible was the gash on
his forehead.

To Get Rid of Mice.
When traps are of no avail or are
objected to in catching mice a good
plan is to saturate bits of sponge or cotton wool with oil of peppermint and
place it in their holes, or sprinkle the
oil in any place that they are likely to frequent. Another plan is to make a cement of plaster of Paris, cayenne
pepper and cold water, and fill the mouse holes with this. The best remedy, however, is a cat.

CHILDREN DRINK BEER

Debauchery of Waukegan Children Is a Disgrace to
the Community

BOTTLES BREED DISEASE

Wee Children on South Side are Seen to Drink Beer out of Discarded Bottles.
Police to Investigate

One of the most disgusting sights imaginable, as witnessed by a reporter on South Genesee street, Waukegan, was to see several little children, girls and boys
alike, who did not appear to be more than
three or four years of age, drinking beer
out of partially emptied bottles that stood
in front of a certain saloon. Bystanders
who stood near thought that the matter
was a good joke and encouraged the children in the debauchery.

It is a common practice for many of the south side saloons to leave empty cases of
beer bottles in front of their places of business until they are called for by the beer
agents. In many cases the bottles are only partially emptied.

Children, it is claimed, have learned of
this fact and daily go to these bottles,
draining them of their last drop and then
smacking their lips as if they enjoyed the
dirty fluid.

The majority of the children that drink
from these bottles are sons and daughters
of the saloon keepers themselves—many of them live in nearby flat buildings near the
south end of the Genesee street bridge.
While a few of them may be ten years of age the majority appear hardly able to walk.

The practice of drinking the vile and stale beer that has been thrown away it is
said was learned in their own homes where
day after day they see their parents occupied in the same practice. In most cases
they are foreigners who cannot speak English.

Many south side residents who have
witnessed this practice of the children
from time to time are very indignant and
assert that they do not propose to stand for it very much longer. Aside from the vile practice of drinking the beer the un-
cleanly feature is something to be considered. Many of the bottles are contaminated
with germs from the lips of the drinkers
and these in turn are transferred to the children. The police have been informed of the matter and will make an investigation and it is possible that arrests may follow.

DIVORCE GRANTED BY JUSTICE OF PEACE WHILE YOU WAIT

Marriages may be made in heaven, but
for the real up-to-date, made to order while
you wait, divorce, a Fox Lake justice of the peace holds the undisputed claim. An incident which happened a few days ago
in that village gave him the title and established a precedent that has set the village agog.

A few days ago, a well known Fox Lake
woman entered the dingy little office of the village justice and in a few loud words laid down her case, showing how she was a much abused woman.

"Now, I want a divorce," she stated
after setting forth her claim.

"That looks like a pretty clear case to me," mentioned the justice. "I guess I can grant you the divorce. Will $30 a month alimony be enough for you. Yes?
Well that is all settled then."

And in a few minutes, without a court
or jury the divorce decree was made out to
the woman and she returned home, greatly
satisfied with the dispatch with which everything had been carried out. And the most interesting thing about the whole matter is that the husband was perfectly
satisfied with the arrangement.

It was not until a day or two later that
friends learned of the divorce, she had received and it was then that they explained
to her that such a proceeding could not be legal. The woman as well as her husband
were much surprised when they learned
that such was really the case and they
thought they had been grossly deceived.

That any justice of the peace should have been so ignorant of divorce laws was to imagine that it was within his jurisdiction
to grant a divorce seems almost incredible but residents of the village assert that
it was certainly the case.

Pretty and Artistic.
An Antichon man thought and
thought what colors would be pretty
and artistic to use in painting his
house, and then used bright yellow
and bright green.—Antichon Globe.

ROBBERY NETS THIEF $125

While Agent is Absent Sneak Enters Lake
Bluff Northwestern Depot and Steals

One of the most daring robberies that has taken place in Lake county in some time took place at the Northwestern depot
at Lake Bluff Monday afternoon.

A bold sneak thief entered the station
while Agent Witherspoon was out in the baggage room attending to necessary baggage work there, grabbed up the weekly
remittance envelope containing $124.65,
and made a successful escape.

Yesterday the entire Northwestern force of secret service men is on the job after the
thief but so far there is not the slightest
clue to the identity of the sneak.

Agent Witherspoon stated in an interview
that he had noticed a woman hanging
about the station just before he left for
the baggage room and she was gone when he came back. Later he found the remittance envelope gone and his suspicious at
once pointed to the mysterious veiled
woman. There is no trace of her.

The remittance envelope was velvet for
the thief because it contained, as is usual
in railroad procedure, only real bills and
specie and once gone it would be impossible
to recover any of it.

The station has two entrances, one fronting on the railroad tracks and the other
east on the main street of the village.
The thief may have left by the street entrance and been lucky enough to catch
an electric car north or south, as the electric road is only a few paces away.

The envelope lay in plain sight on the
agent's desk in the inner office but the
thief must have forced the lock of the
strong door which is always locked,
whether the agent is present or not.

AN AGED PIONEER PASSES AWAY ON WEDNESDAY LAST

James Walsh was born in Dublin, Ireland on the twentieth day of May, 1828,
and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
Edd Renshan at Round Lake, Illinois,
November 4, 1908, at the age of 80 years,
5 months and 14 days.

Mr. Walsh has been a great sufferer
from rheumatism for many years. Early
this spring a sore appeared on his hip,
which the doctors thought might develop
into a cancer but it never matured and his death was caused by a general breaking down of the whole system. Every since
the sad death of his wife and sons he has been rapidly failing in health.

He was a kind and loving husband and
father, a good neighbor ever ready to help
those in need of his assistance and by his death the community has lost one of its early settlers, a man who stood high in
the estimation of his neighbors and daily
associates and his death will be mourned
by relatives and friends alike.

He leaves to mourn his loss, one son,
John of Fox Lake and three daughters,
Mrs. J. Boyle of McHenry, Mrs. Ed Rens-
han of Round Lake, and Mrs. Chas. Thorn
of this place, one brother of McHenry and
a large number of friends.

The funeral services which were attended by a large concourse of friends were held Saturday, November 7, 1908 at St. Mary's Catholic church at Fox Lake, of which he has always been an active member. High mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Wolf
after which he delivered a sad and impressive sermon. The remains were interred in the family burial plot at McHenry, Illinois.

The News joins with their many friends
in extending sympathy to the sorrowing
family.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ARSON

Quite a sensation has been created in the village of Salem by the arrest of Joseph and Henry Hartnell, both prominent
men, on the charges of arson.

Joseph Hartnell was arrested on a statement by Henry Hartnell that the two
had set fire to a building in a lumber
yard just to see how much excitement the
fire would cause.

Both brothers are in jail, and Monday
afternoon, at the demand of Joseph Har-
nell a lunacy commission examined Henry Hartnell. The commission found him
sane, and it is now certain that the brothers will be forced to stand trial. The fire was extinguished with the loss of a few dollars.

Joseph Hartnell has been released on motion of Dist. Attorney Baker. Henry Hartnell, after being found sane, made a
further statement in which he declared
that his brother was not implicated in the matter.

Wearing 'Em Out.

youngster of yours as you used to be."
"No, for economy's sake. Every month I used to have to buy myself

pair of pants."—Catholic Standard.

CANDIDATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

Honorable Charles Whitney,
of Waukegan, Announces Candidacy

LAKE COUNTY'S CANDIDATE

Members of Bar Persuade Respected Lake County Leader and One of Deans of Profession to Run for Bench

Charles Whitney, one of the deans of the Lake County bar, in response to solicitations of the members of the bar, has formally announced himself as a candidate
for Judge of the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial District.

Following are the petition signed by members of the bar for the Lake county
candidate and his own announcement:

We, the undersigned members of the Lake county bar recognize the fact that
litigation is on the increase in this county
and that at the present time, and for some time past, the circuit court docket of this county is the largest and most important
of any in this judicial district; owing to
the increased litigation, we feel and believe that Lake county is entitled and
ought to have a resident judge who will be able to give more of his time to the holding of court in this district.

Therefore, to that end, we most respectfully endorse the Hon. Charles Whitney as a lawyer and man eminently worthy and well qualified to fill the position. And it is our desire that he be a candidate for
nomination at the next judicial primaries
for one of the judicial positions to be filled
at the next judicial election.

Pursuant to the desire of the members of
the bar of Lake county, and at the request
of many Republican voters of the county,
I have concluded to become a candidate
for one of the three circuit judgeships at
the disposal of the legal voters of this judicial district composed of the counties of Lake, McHenry, Boone and Winnebago. I do this after ascertaining that a very large number of the voters of the district outside
of our county, as well as the voters of this county, are in favor of Lake county having
representation on the circuit bench.

surance Company have levied an assessment for 1908 of one dollar and sixty
cents ($1.60) on each one thousand dollars
insured to pay the losses of $4,451.25 that have occurred during the year. Assessment will be due and called for in thirty

Moral of the Derby.
It is, no doubt, sad to have to admit
that British humanity obstinately declines to be cured of its love of horses
and the backing thereof by any amount of experience. But the gambling instinct is ineradicable, and the most that wise legislation can do is to control it within such limits as circumstances may prove to be practica-

MANUFACTURERS OUTLET SALE

$22,000.00 Worth of Merchandise bought from the Manufacturer at less than cost to manufacture

$22,000.00 Worth of Merchandise bought from the Manufacturer at less than cost to manufacture

FOR the second time the Globe throws its doors open to the most stupendous and stirring sale ever inaugurated in the city of Waukegan namely the Manufacturers' Outlet Sale. Every man, woman and child in Waukegan and for miles around can plainly recall, when last spring we introduced our first Manufacturers' Outlet Sale. There is undoubtedly not one of you who has forgotten what a wonderful sensation it created, how it practically took everybody by storm, what throngs of buyers it assembled under our roof and what a favorable impression it made upon the public; how it brought to the people the true realization of the greatness and price making power of the Globe. It was an occasion such as the people had never witnessed before and simply because it was the first time that any store in Waukegan had ever become big enough, a strong enough factor in the purchasing market to successfully swing an event of such gigantic proportion. Its phenomenal success induced us to make it a semi-annual event and this, the second one is destined to completely outshadow the first. The consolidated manufacturers of the east hold twice a year what they term the Manufacturers' Outlet Sale. It is for the purpose of disposing of every surplus line of merchandise. This season found them with immense overstocks, representing nearly every line of up-to-date fall and winter goods; their policy is always to make a quick and absolute disposal, cost or value not considered. The Globe among other big dealers in this country is one of their sources of outlet. They notified us of their great Outlet Sale. We bought heavier than last season, the bargains were greater, we purchased $22,000.00 worth of the choicest bargains at less than cost to manufacture. The prices to you on a bulk of the goods are nearly one-half their regular value—just stop to think and remember too that the quality is of our exacting high standard and the styles the very latest. These Manufacturers' Outlet sales are bargain events that are confined entirely to us in Waukegan as the Globe is the only concern that consumes enough goods to enter into negotiations with the Consolidated Manufacturers; our outlet for merchandise being greater than that of any three stores combined in Waukegan. Anticipate your needs for months to come and buy during this wonderful 14 days sale

Its Blood Precious.
The blood of the rhinoceros is highly esteemed by the Burmese and Chinese as a medicine for all kinds of ailments. Whenever a party of hunters are successful in shooting a rhinoceros—they are less numerous than they used to be—the native hunters carefully draw off the blood and bring it to Rangoon stored in hollow bamboo. The precious liquid is worth its weight in silver.

London's Health.
For a population which easily counts into several millions, London is a remarkable city from the point of health, and a splendid example to the rest of the cities of the world. The provincial cities, too, may well look upon the health statistics of the mother city with envy.—London Lancet.

How is your Digestion.

Snakes' Ears.
Snakes have no external ears, but inside the head the ear bones are very crude, says St. Nicholas. Snakes "hear," however, by feeling vibration of sound on their delicate scaly covering, and searching for sound vibrations by protruding the wonderfully sensitive tongue which is filled with thousands of microscopic nerves. Their sight is very keen in distinguishing moving objects.

Moral and Material Responsibility.
Private life should be walled in and sacred, but public life has no such right. All public existence created by great public interests creates a responsibility, and this responsibility is moral as well as material. There is no gainsaying this, and all public functionaries admit they are responsible for their personal actions.—Pierre Anole Berryer.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak Stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the Heat and Kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the Stomach or stimulating the Heat or Kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerves." When these nerves fail those organs must surely falter. The vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by J. H. Swan.

His Complaint.
"The times may grow better," he asserted, as they went down in the elevator together, standing before the mirror in which she finished curling. He gazed sorrowfully at the vacant spot that constituted the great distress of his life, "but," he added, "I'm afraid the hair will never again grow back on my head."

Yew Trees in Churchyards.
Yew trees were originally planted in churchyards to protect them from cattle, and so preserve them for the making of bows and arrows.

The Swashbuckler.
The swashbuckling patriot is akin to the religious fanatic; the one can see only his country and the other only his sect. And in both cases the intellectual outlook is generally so narrow that scarcely anything more is revealed to the patriotic or religious fanatic than a distorted view of material greatness or spiritual goodness.—Concord.

A clergman writes: "Preventics, those little Candy Cold Cure Tablets are working wonders in my parish". Preventics surely will check a cold, or the Grippe, in a very few hours. And Preventics are so safe and harmless. No Quinine, nothing harsh nor sickening. Fine for feverish restless children. Box of 48 at 25c. Sold by J. H. Swan.

Hens Hatch Fish.
Chinamen have a way of tricking hens, so that they assist in the hatching of fish. Fish eggs are carefully placed in an egg shell, which is then sealed and put under an unsuspecting hen. In a few days the spawn is warmed into life and the contents of the shell are then cast into a shallow pool, where the sunshine completes the work.

Mind Your Business!
If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria and jaundice out of your system 25c. at J. H. Swan's drug store.

Twelve Greatest Inventions.
A Paris newspaper has been asking its readers to name the 12 greatest inventions. Over 400,000 coupons were sent in and the votes were cast in the following order: The locomotive, the potato, vaccine, the cure of rabies, sugar, electric telegraph, matches, the boiler of a steam engine, the telephone, petrol, the sewing machine and soap.

Fruitful Jersey.
A contributor assures us that the following is a faithful and accurate report of an entirely sober speech recently heard in a certain pleasant and famous city of New Jersey. "Hey, there, boy! Take this basket of apples up to Mr. Pearce, corner of Peach and Plum streets. And be quick about it, too!"—Harper's Weekly.

Tickling, tight Coughs, can be surely and quickly loosed with a prescription Druggists are dispensing everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so very, very different than common cough medicines. No Opium, no Chloroform, absolutely nothing harsh or unsafe. The tender leaves of a harmless, lung healing mountainous shrub, gives the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. Those leaves have the power to calm the most distressing Cough and to soothe and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane. Mothers should, for safety's sake alone, always demand Dr. Shoop's. It can with perfect freedom be given to even the youngest babes. Test it yourself! and see. Sold by J. H. Swan.

His Act.
"Father," said young St. Cornstalk, "I have long desired to go on the stage, and now, with your permission—"

Hosea Cornstalk thoughtfully stroked his flame-colored chin beard. "All the world's a stage, my son," he said, gently. "Take that hoe and dig up the potatoes in the half acre field behind the hog pen."

Frightened the Feminine.
"Space out of a job? Why, I thought he was running a fashion department in a woman's magazine." "Yes, but he caused the magazine to lose so many subscribers, they fired him." "How in the world did that happen?" "Why, the lobster headed his column. 'New wrinkles for women.'"—The Wasp.

AUSTRALIAN INSURANCE.

Scheme by Which State Provides Cheap Protection to Settlers.

Consul General John P. Bray of Melbourne reports that the government of the Australian state of Victoria is about to undertake the experiment of state insurance in connection with the houses of settlers, which the government has erected on a scheme by which repayments by the occupants are extended over long periods.

It is estimated that the settlers will have to pay the government for the state insurance of the houses what is equal to an annual premium of not much more than one-fourth per cent. upon the value of the property, whereas if companies did the insuring the men would—according to departmental estimates—have to pay at the rate of between one-half per cent. and one per cent. The government has already accepted the responsibility for the 250 houses which have either been erected or are being built. The houses are wooden, and many of them are situated in localities where the fire fighting machinery is not of the most modern type. The companies offered to insure the places at premiums varying from $2.55 to $4.25, allowing ten per cent. discount. This would have cost the 250 settlers the price of about two houses a year.

The government program provides for the building of 500 new houses within the next two years. This will bring the total number up to 750 houses. According to the departmental estimates, if the government were to accept the insurance companies' terms it would cover the cost of six houses a year in insuring this number. The government hopes instead to charge the settlers less than would the companies, yet establish a substantial fund from which to meet all losses.

LIGHTNING'S QUEER FREAKS.

Dog Killed in Lap of Painter Who Escapes Uninjured.

Many strange freaks of lightning are reported from a recent storm, says a Clayton, N. J., dispatch to the Philadelphia Record. While a man was painting a sign at Landville a streak of lightning encircled the man's neck, passed down to the dog and killed it instantly. The sign painter was blinded for about three minutes, but felt no other effects of the lightning after his sight had returned to him.

The bolt that struck Walter Keen made a hole through the floor directly under his foot, but did not make the slightest mark upon the rug. A window pane, 30 by 36 inches, in the Keen house was taken out by the lightning and stood up against a walnut tree without cracking the glass, the lightning having melted the putty and glazier's points.

A tree in North Clayton was struck by a ball which appeared as big as a barrel and stripped entirely of its leaves without otherwise injuring the tree. A tin can at the McWilliams house was shaped by the lightning like an accordion plaited skirt. A bolt of lightning filled Harry Easler's cellar with dense smoke, but made no marks whence it came or whither it went. Lightning jumped from a wire fence surrounding a poultry yard and gave Mrs. Francis Hill a shock from which she has not yet fully recovered.

Success.
If every day we can feel, if only for a moment, the elation of being alive, the realization of being our best selves, of filling our destined scope and trend, you may be sure that we are succeeding.—Bliss Carman.

Rain water weighs 62.5-10 pounds per cubic foot, while sea water weighs 64.25-100 pounds per cubic foot. The difference in weight is due to the salt contained in sea water.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney troubles are allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery, and a book that tells all about it, both Home of Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

And She an Old Maid.
"I sat in the front seat of the car with nine men," said the old maid, "four in the same seat, five facing me. I paid my fare with a dime and the conductor said: 'Two?' I wonder which of those men he thought I was going to pay for?"

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at J. H. Swan's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Is This True?

A large proportion of the stories in demand at "select" libraries are the reverse of creditable to our views on women. But it is only fair to add that many of the most pronounced of these are written by women. Men seldom write this unwholesome fiction, nor do they read it with avidity. The study of illicit passion appeals most to certain feminine temperaments. I am afraid that cannot be denied.—Arthur Wallace, in "The Crown."

THE ESCAPADE

A POST MARITAL ROMANCE

SYNOPSIS.

The Escapade opens, not in the romance preceding the marriage of Lord Carrington, a Puritan, and Lady Stratgate, a Catholic, but in their life after settling in England. The scene is placed, just following the revolution, in Carrington castle in England. The Carringtons, after a house party, engaged in a family tilt, caused by jealousy. Lord Carrington and his wife each made charges of faithlessness against the other in continuation of the quarrel. First objecting against playing cards with the guests, Lady Carrington agreed to cut cards with Lord Stratgate, whose attentions to Ellen had become a sore point with Carrington. The loss of $100,000 failed to perturb her, and her husband then cut for his wife's L. O. U. and his honor, Carrington winning. The incident closed except that a liking for each other apparently arose between Lady Carrington and Lord Stratgate. Additional attentions of Lord Carrington to Lady Cecily and Lord Stratgate to Lady Carrington compelled the latter to vow that she would leave the castle. Preparing to flee, Lady Carrington and her husband, Deborah, an American girl, met Lord Stratgate at two a. m. he agreeing to see them safely away. Ellen fled, Stratgate driving. He attempted to take her to his castle, but she left in a huff in the road when the carriage met with an accident. She and Deborah then struck out for Portsmouth, where she intended to go for America. Hearing news of Ellen's flight, Lord Carrington and Seton set out in pursuit. Lord Carrington, a fishing village, hit the trail of Ellen and Deborah. He then rented a "cat vessel" and started in pursuit, Carrington pursuing Stratgate. Stratgate, bleeding from a fall, dashed on to Portsmouth, for which Carrington, Ellen and Seton were also headed by different routes. Stratgate arrived in Portsmouth in advance of the others, finding that Ellen's ship had sailed before her.

CHAPTER XI.—Continued.

Carrington was armed. He hauled a pistol from his belt, cocked it and leveled it fair at Stratgate. "Bring that boat into the wharf," he cried, "or I'll shoot you like the dog you are!"

Stratgate did not blanch. He balanced himself easily to the roll of the boat and looked square at Carrington. "Would you add murder to your other follies?" he answered.

He was an easy mark, the distance was short, Carrington was a sure shot, and if ever a man had murder in his heart it was in that of Ellen's husband. Yet there was something in the dauntless way in which Stratgate faced him and in the fact that the latter appeared unarmed, that caused Carrington, with finger upon the trigger, to stay the pressure.

"Why don't you fire, my lord?" cried Stratgate.

"Draw your weapon, Stratgate," said Carrington, dropping the point of his own pistol.

"I'm sorry to say that I'm unarmed."

There was no use. Carrington could not kill him under the circumstances. He stood staring after him for a moment, and then raised his hand and shook it in the air.

"God have mercy on you if I meet you again!" he cried.

"Take the peril to yourself, Lord Carrington," Stratgate called out, and with a farewell wave of his hand the cutter shot out beyond the extremity of the pier, and, catching the full force of the breeze, which happened to be blowing straight up the harbor, necessitating a hard beat out against it, bore away toward the opposite shore.

Pistol in hand, Carrington turned and confronted the astonished crowd which had gathered in his rear.

"What went he after?" he asked.

The men facing him looked from one to another.

Carrington thrust the pistol back into his belt, tore out his pocketbook, opened it, and took out a ten-pound note.

"That for information."

One of the men whose boats Stratgate had disdained to employ forced his way through the crowd.

"I'll tell you for the money."

"Speak out. 'Tis yours."

"He come down here lookin' for a man and a woman, and Cooper, he owns the boat yonder, said his brother put a party containin' a man and a woman aboard the Flying Star or a ship like her last night."

"What then?" asked Carrington.

"Then he offered a hundred pounds for the fastest boat to put him aboard the Flying Star afore she got clear into the channel."

"And he took Cooper's boat," said another boatman.

"Is she the fastest in the harbor?"

"Well, there's some as do say that Jim Haight's boat's got the heels of her."

"Here's your ten pounds," said Carrington. "Where's Haight?"

"Hare I be, master."

"A hundred pounds to you," said Carrington, "if you put me aboard that ship, and another hundred if you put me there before Stratgate."

"And if I don't do neither?" returned Haight, quickly.

"Nothing," said Carrington. "It's win or lose."

"I take you, yer honor," cried Haight, whose sporting blood was aroused, and the remark was greeted by three cheers from the wharf.

"If it's in the power of a Portsmouth boat to do it, Haight's the man for you, master," said one old veteran.

"Stay," continued Haight, "I'd like to know who I'm dealin' with."

"I'm Lord Carrington, first lieutenant of the Noble yonder."

He pointed to one of the frigates swinging ahead in the line of battleships of Kephard's fleet.

"Right-o, your lordship," said Haight, making a sea scrape at the mention of rank, social, political and naval, of his speaker. "Lads, who goes with us?"

He picked up three or four volunteers, to whom Carrington promised a suitable reward.

"My boat's twice as big as Cooper's cutter, and I need the hands, your lordship."

"Take anybody, anything you please," said Carrington. "Where's the boat?"

"She be lyin' beyond the other pier. Shall I bring her here, or—"

"We'll go there," returned my lord. "Tis quicker."

Committing his horse to one of the bystanders, with instructions to take him to the inn, Carrington, followed by Haight and three seamen, ran back to the shore, made their way along the strand to the other pier, leaped into the boat, which was a large, swift cutter, as Haight had said, at least half again as big as Cooper's, which was now well down the harbor and going tremendously under every freshening breeze.

To cast off the lines, hoist the sails, warp the boat along the pier until she gained the open roads, was the work of a few moments. Carrington stood quietly while the skillful men worked busily around him, but so soon as the wind filled the sail and the boat gathered way he came aft, calmly displaced Haight at the helm and sailed the boat himself. And no one in that harbor knew how to do it better than he.

CHAPTER XII.

Lady Carrington's Luck.

About two o'clock in the morning, as Ellen had expected, the breeze sprang up. It blew fitfully in cat's paws and light baffling airs at first. Ellen made the most of every possibility presented, however. She was desperately anxious to get to Portsmouth and she handled her boat with all her accustomed skill, rejoicing in her possession of it.

She did not awaken Deborah. She let the boat drift while she herself

As Ellen had expected, the breeze sprang up. It blew fitfully in cat's paws and light baffling airs at first. Ellen made the most of every possibility presented, however. She was desperately anxious to get to Portsmouth and she handled her boat with all her accustomed skill, rejoicing in her possession of it.

some premonition of danger caused Ellen to survey the other vessel, a small lugger, perhaps a mile astern, with deep and intense interest. Something seemed to whisper to her heart that its presence boded no good for the fugitives.

In order to settle the matter, Ellen suddenly put up the helm and ran broad off toward the channel. The other boat followed her motions at once. At this confirmation of her suspicions, Ellen once more brought her own cutter on her previous course, and again the other boat followed the movements of the first.

"They're pursuing us," said Ellen. "I thought so," returned Debbie.

"Who can they be?" queried Ellen, tightening her grip upon the tiller.

"It might be your husband," answered Debbie.

And if that were so, it flashed into Ellen's mind that perhaps the best thing would be to throw her own boat up into the wind, doff sail, or at least just give her steerage way and wait to be taken back. But Debbie's voice dispelled that dream.

"It's more likely to be Lord Stratgate," continued the American girl, "than anyone else. He would naturally follow us to that little village, if he were not so seriously wounded as to be utterly helpless and of course he would pursue us. They would find the money you put on the wharf and anybody could guess the rest."

The thought smote Ellen's heart. There was so much probability of it.

"Ay," she said, "tis probably Stratgate as you say."

"He's undoubtedly intensely angry with us both, or with you at least, Ellen," continued Deborah. "You know you tried to kill him last night."

"I wish to heaven I had succeeded!" returned Lady Carrington.

"And we both left him helpless in the road and he can't be feeling very kindly toward us," went on Deborah with innocent simplicity.

"He pretended to love me," said Ellen, scornfully. "Well, he shall never take me into that boat. I'll sink this one rather than—"

"Oh, please don't do anything so rash," cried Deborah, alarmed at that threat. "I'm sure I don't want to be sunk and drowned because Lord Stratgate loves you and Lord Carrington doesn't."

"How do you know he doesn't?" cried Ellen.

"Why, you said that he and Lady Cecily—"

"Don't you ever dare mention that woman's name to me," returned the other, fiercely. "She beguiled him and enticed him—I hate them both!"

She was on the verge of another breakdown. Deborah was appalled by the vehemence of her companion and tactfully interposed a remark to change the trend of her thoughts.

"I think they're nearer to us now."

"They are," cried Ellen as she surveyed them with her practiced eye. "Their boat is larger, she spreads more sail. She goes three fathoms to our two. What shall we do? Here take the tiller a moment. Hold it just as it is and the sheet in the other hand."

"What are you going to do?" asked Deborah as she obeyed her captain's commands.

"I'm going to see if there are any powder and shot in the lockers forward. I was a fool to come away with only the charges in my pistols."

"Would you shoot him?"

"Ay, that I would," returned Ellen, "rather than fall into his hands."

She stepped forward and rummaged in the locker under the bows but found nothing. She made her way aft again and disturbing Deborah opened another locker in the stern sheets. There to her good fortune she found a flask of powder but no bullets. She was bitterly disappointed at this lack, but at least something was gained. She knelt down on the thwarts and with skill bred of ancient practice rapidly charged both her pistols.

WHERE AUBURN LOCKS ABOUND.

Found in Great Numbers in Northeastern Part of Scotland.

Red hair is found in distinct excess north of the Grampians, and especially in the northeast of Scotland. A scientist who has made the question of pigmentation a special study, and has just been helped to conclude a color survey of the school children—over 50,000—of Scotland, announced this as one of his results.

In most European countries, he said, there is a distinct predominance of one type over the others. In north Germany and Sweden it is the blonde type; in Italy the brunette. No such predominance is found in Scotland. Dark hair and fair are present in equal proportions. The dominant color among Scottish children is brown, and it has to be shown how far brown is really a blend of fair and dark.

The proportion of red hair throughout the country is a little over 5 per cent.—high compared with the continent. One cannot overlook the reference of Tacitus to the red haired Caledonians. Some curious facts brought to light suggest that red hair is not entirely or strictly a racial trait. It may have some peculiar physiological if not pathological connection.

Teach Poor Women to Cook.

Some of the home economics clubs of the east have established "centers" with all cooking school conveniences, where poor women may be taught how to keep house and cook economically. There is no fancy cooking taught, but simply the things that are served by the poor people themselves each day, only they are taught to keep account of the expense and cook economically.

States Production of Oil.

The Kansas-Oklahoma oil field took the lead for production in 1907, pushing California back to second place, Illinois, formerly ninth in the list of states, attained third place for the first time.

EXCELLENT WEATHER AND MAGNIFICENT CROPS

REPORTS FROM WESTERN CANADA ARE VERY ENCOURAGING.

A correspondent writes the Winnipeg (Man.) Free Press: "The Pincher Creek district, (Southern Alberta), the original home of fall wheat, where it has been grown without failure, dry seasons and wet, for about 25 years, is excellent itself this year. The yield and quality are both phenomenal, as has been the weather for its harvesting. Forty bushels is a common yield, and many fields go up to 50, 60 and over, and most of it No. 1 Northern. Even last year, which was less favorable, similar yields were in some cases obtained, but owing to the season the quality was not so good. It is probably safe to say that the average yield from the Old Man's River to the boundary will be 47 or 48 bushels per acre, and mostly No. 1 Northern. One man has just made a net profit from his crop of $19.55 per acre, or little less than the selling price of land. Land here is too cheap at present, when a crop or two will pay for it, and a failure almost unknown. Nor is the district dependent on wheat, all other crops do well, also stock and dairying, and there is a large market at the doors in the mining towns up the Crow's Nest Pass, and in British Columbia, for the abundant hay of the district, and poultry, pork, and garden truck. Coal is near and cheap. Jim Hill has an eye on its advantages, and has invested here, and is bringing the Great Northern Railroad soon, when other lines will follow."

The wheat, oat and barley crop in other parts of Western Canada show splendid yields and will make the farmers of that country (and many of them are Americans) rich. The Canadian Government Agent for this district advises us that he will be pleased to give information to all who desire it about the new land regulations by which a settler may now secure 160 acres in addition to his 160 homestead acres, at $3.00 an acre, and also how to reach these lands into which railways are being extended. It might be interesting to read what is said of that country by the Editor of the Marshall (Minn.) News-Messenger, who made a trip through portions of it in July, 1908. "Passing through more than three thousand miles of Western Canada's agricultural lands, touring the northern and southern farming belts of the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, with numerous drives through the great grain fields, we were made to realize not only the magnificence of the crops, but the magnitude, in measures, of the vast territory opening, and to be opened to farming immigration. There are hundreds of thousands of farmers there, and millions of acres under cultivation, but there is room for millions more, and other millions of acreage available. We could see in Western Canada in soil, product, topography or climate, little that is different from Minnesota, and with meeting at every point many business men and farmers who went there from this state, it was difficult to realize one was beyond the boundary of the country."

AFTER THE SHOT.

Robbie Rabbit—Never in all my life has such shocking language been used in my presence as that boy has used in the last three minutes. Oooh!

Real Self-Possession.
Not long ago a young couple entered a railway carriage at Sheffield and were immediately put down as a bridal pair. But they were remarkably self-possessed and behaved with such sang-froid that the other passengers began to doubt if their first surmise was correct after all.

As the train moved out, however, the young man rose to remove his overcoat, and a shower of rice fell out, while the passengers smiled broadly. But even that did not affect the youth, who also smiled, and, turning to his partner, remarked audibly: "By Jove, May! I've stolen the bridegroom's overcoat!"—Fatler.

Nothing I Ate Agreed With Me.

MRS. LENORA BODENHAMER.
Mrs. Lenora Bodenhamer, R. F. D. 1, Box 99, Kewanee, Ill., writes: "I suffered with stomach trouble and indigestion for some time, and nothing that I ate agreed with me. I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and fear. I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good."

"I found in one of your Peruna books a description of my symptoms. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He said I had catarrh of the stomach. I took Peruna and Manalin and followed his directions and can now say that I feel as well as I ever did."

"I hope that all who are afflicted with the same symptoms will take Peruna, as it has certainly cured me."
The above is only one of hundreds who have written similar letters to Dr. Hartman. Just one such case as this entitles Peruna to the candid consideration of every one similarly afflicted. If this be true of the testimony of one person what ought to be the testimony of hundreds, yes thousands, of honest, sincere people. We have in our files a great many other testimonials.

CARMACK IS KILLED

FORMER SENATOR SHOT DEAD ON NASHVILLE STREET.

POLITICS CAUSE OF DUEL

Robin Cooper Slays Editor of The Tennessean Because of Published Attacks on His Father.

Nashville, Tenn.—Former Senator Edward Ward Carmack, editor of The Tennessean, was shot and killed Monday afternoon about four o'clock on Seventh avenue North, in front of the Polk flats, by Robin Cooper, a son of Col. Duncan B. Cooper.

Mr. Carmack was going north on Seventh avenue in front of the Polk flats and Col. Cooper and his son Robin were approaching Seventh avenue on Union street. Soon after they came in sight of one another the shooting began, Robin Cooper, it is said, firing two shots and Senator Carmack one.

Col. Cooper, it is said, drew his pistol but did not fire. Senator Carmack fell to the ground, dying instantly. Robin Cooper was shot in the right shoulder but was not badly hurt.

It is understood that the trouble is one of the results of the recent Democratic gubernatorial primary in which Carmack was defeated. Carmack, since he had been editor of The Tennessean, had been quite caustic in criticizing what he called the Democratic machine, and had several editorials about Col. Cooper.

Within the past few days, it is said, Col. Cooper notified Carmack that these editorial criticisms must cease. Monday morning another editorial reference to Col. Cooper appeared in the Tennessean, and this is supposed to have been the immediate cause of the trouble.

As soon as Carmack fell Col. Cooper put his arm around Robin Cooper and both walked a few feet down Seventh avenue to Dr. R. G. Fort's office, where the slight wound in Robin's shoulder was examined and treated.

An ambulance carried the body of Mr. Carmack to an undertaking establishment. His pistol was lying at his side with two of the chambers empty when the body was picked up.

Robin Cooper is a practicing attorney, 27 years old and single.

GOTHAM POSTMASTER SHOT.

Wounded by Eccentric Stenographer, Who Then Commits Suicide.

New York.—Edward M. Morgan, postmaster of New York city, was wounded in the abdomen Monday morning by a bullet fired by E. H. B. Mackay, an eccentric English stenographer, who then committed suicide.

Mr. Morgan probably owes his life to the quick wit and bravery of his 14-year-old daughter Dorothy, who saw Mackay draw his revolver and struck it with her hand. This deflected the bullet, otherwise the postmaster would have been fatally wounded.

An investigation of the life and record of Mackay reveals that he was of a morbid nature and a former inmate of an asylum in Worcester, Mass. That his act was premeditated is made certain by a letter he left, but aside from a fancied grievance against Mr. Morgan and the post-office authorities concerning the handling of his mail, nothing has come to light to indicate why he should have sought to murder the postmaster. His clothing when searched gave up between thirty and forty smokeless cartridges, a heavy slungshot, a knife with a four-inch blade and a clasp knife.

MAY MAKE ROOT SENATOR.

New York Leaders Thought to Have Agreed With President.

Washington.—It is the general opinion in Washington that as a result of a long conference at the White House Monday between President Roosevelt, James Wadsworth, Jr., speaker of the New York state assembly, and William L. Ward, Republican national committeeman and one of the foremost leaders in New York state politics, the man who will be supported by them next January as the candidate before the New York legislature to succeed Thomas C. Platt on March 4, 1909, as United States senator from New York, will be Ellhu Root of Clinton, now secretary of state.

Logansport Man a Suicide.

Boston.—It became known Monday night that Cloyd Gray Hershey, aged 25 years, of Logansport, Ind., a graduate of Depauw university and a junior in the Boston University School of Theology, committed suicide by shooting himself last Friday.

Abruzzi-Elkins Wedding in 1909.

London.—The Daily Express asserts that the wedding of the duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins will take place in Rome or Turin some time in 1909.

Bold Attempt at Blackmail.

Denver, Col.—A woman giving her name as Mrs. H. C. Cones Monday afternoon compelled Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phillips, divorced wife, of Lawrence Phillips, the Pittsburgh millionaire, to take her in her automobile to a bank for the purpose of getting $10,000 that she demanded of Mrs. Phillips on pain of being blown to pieces with dynamite. At the bank Mrs. Cones was overpowered by special officers and placed under arrest. She talked incoherently to the police and is thought to be insane.

PERFECT HEALTH.

After Years of Backache, Dizziness and Kidney Disorders.

Mrs. R. C. Richmond, of Northwood, Iowa, says: "For years I was a martyr to kidney trouble, backache, dizzy spells, headaches and a terrible bearing-down pain. I used one remedy after another without benefit. Finally I used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and the backache ceased. Encouraged, I kept on, and by the time I had used three boxes not a sign of the trouble remained. My health is perfect."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BOY KEPT SCRATCHING.

Eczema Lasted 7 Years—Face Was All Raw—Skin Specialists Failed, But Cuticura Effectuated Cure.

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor, but his face kept on getting worse until it got so bad that no one could look at him. His whole face was one crust and he must have been very painful. He scratched day and night until his face was raw. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. The eczema got on his arms and legs and we could not get a night's sleep in months. I got a set of Cuticura Remedies and he felt relieved the first time I used them. I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up. He is now seven years old and I think the trouble will never return. Mrs. John G. Klumpp, 80 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 17 and 22, 1907."

SEEMED A TRIFLE PERSONAL.

Clergyman's Particular Reason for Omitting the Fifth Verse.

A clergyman in an interior town married a woman from whom he received a dowry of $10,000 and a prospect of more. Shortly afterwards, while occupying the pulpit, he gave out a hymn, read the first verse and proceeded to read the fifth, commencing:

"Forever let my grateful heart, then he hesitated and exclaimed: 'The choir will omit the fifth verse.' Some of the congregation read the verse for themselves and smiled as they read: Forever let my grateful heart His boundless grace adore, Which gives ten thousand blessings now And bids me hope for more."

Not Guilty.

Willie is a little boy who is noted in his neighborhood for his cruelty to animals. The latest story is that just for fun he took a pair of scissors and cold-bloodedly cut off a kitten's tail. One of the older girls was reproaching him for his cruelty and telling him what a wicked thing he had done. He flatly denied doing anything of the sort.

"Why, Willie, how can you tell such a story?" the girl asked. "Everybody knows you did it." "I didn't! I didn't," he reiterated when pressed further. "I didn't do any such a thing. It wath a dog."

EAGER TO WORK

Health Regained by Right Food.

The average healthy man or woman is usually eager to be busy at some useful task or employment.

But let dyspepsia or indigestion get hold of one, and all endeavor becomes a burden.

"A year ago, after recovering from an operation," writes a Mich. lady, "my stomach and nerves began to give me much trouble."

"At times my appetite was voracious, but when indulged, indigestion followed. Other times I had no appetite whatever. The food I took did not nourish me, and I grew weaker than ever."

"I lost interest in everything, and wanted to be alone. I had always had good nerves, but now the merest trifle would upset me and bring on a violent headache. Walking across the room was an effort and prescribed exercise was out of the question."

"I had seen Grape-Nuts advertised, but did not believe what I read, at the time. At last when it seemed as if I were literally starving, I began to eat Grape-Nuts."

"I had not been able to work for a year, but now after two months on Grape-Nuts I am eager to be at work again. My stomach gives me no trouble now, my nerves are steady as ever, and interest in life and ambition have come back with the return to health."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are accurate, true, and full of human interest.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.
